PROJECT PLAN

FINAL BRIEF

Brief Set By: SUBKO

Overview:

Subko, a Mumbai specialty coffee brand, plans to penetrate the UK market, targeting university students and professors to enhance brand visibility and awareness of Indian coffee amidst competitive and pricing challenges.

The Background:

Founded in 2020 in Mumbai, Subko is a specialty coffee roastery and bakehouse. The name “Subko” means “for everyone” in Hindi and reflects India’s subcontinent. Known for its authenticity, Subko has become popular in India, aiming to spotlight Indian coffee, which, despite being the 8th largest coffee producer globally, lacks global recognition.

The Challenge:

The in the UK expansion seeks to boost awareness of Indian coffee blends but faces stiff competition from existing sharks in the market. Premium pricing could limit appeal to budget-conscious consumers, requiring focused marketing to affluent segments. Higher costs from maintaining artisanal quality may also affect profitability and scalability.

Target Audience:

Subko focuses on UK university students (18-35) and professors (30-55). Universities are ideal for maximizing exposure and integrating our product into daily routines. This audience is influential and open to new experiences, making it a key demographic for driving adoption and brand loyalty.

What To Consider:

*Competitive Landscape
Premium Pricing Strategy
Targeted Marketing
Campus Engagement
Cultural Adaptation
Quality vs. Cost
Brand Storytelling
Digital Presence*

MARKET POTENTIAL RESEARCH

Subko Coffee House has experienced impressive growth, with a 94% increase in revenue for the fiscal year ending in March 2023.

The brand's successful funding rounds and expanding market presence underscore its rising popularity and strong consumer demand.

UK COFFEE MARKET RESEARCH

Overview:

The UK's saturated coffee market lacks authentic Indian blends, and no brands currently offer sustainable to-go coffee options.

Category:

- India exported 125,631 tonnes of coffee in Q1 2024 (Business Standard, April 2024).
- Indian coffee brands for takeaway and dine-in remain absent globally, excluding India.
- Despite the abundance of sustainable coffee brands in the UK, their limited accessibility makes it challenging for consumers to choose sustainable options.

Favourable Market Trends:

1. Experiential Consumption
2. Flavour Exploration
3. Convenience and Accessibility
4. Sustainability Focus
5. Cultural Appreciation

LIFESTYLE MOODBOARD

OBJECTIVE AND RATIONALE

OBJECTIVE:

To strategically launch an Indian coffee brand in the highly saturated UK market, with the primary goal of raising global awareness and driving recognition of India's rich, unique coffee blends, by positioning the brand as a leader in sustainability and offering a differentiated, authentic coffee experience that resonates with the values of Gen-Z and Millennial consumers.

RATIONALE:

- Showcase India's Coffee Heritage
- Elevate Global Awareness of Indian Blends
- Make sustainability more accessible
- Foster Authentic Cultural Appreciation

CREATIVE CONCEPTS

CREATIVE CONCEPT - 1

“Brewed in Tradition”

OVERVIEW:

“Brewed in Tradition” focuses on highlighting the rich history and cultural significance of Indian coffee. The campaign will showcase the journey of Subko’s coffee beans from the lush plantations of India to the cups of UK consumers. Through storytelling, visuals, and experiential marketing, the campaign will emphasize the authenticity and heritage behind each blend.

AIM:

- Position Subko as the leading brand for authentic, high-quality Indian coffee.
- Connect consumers with the cultural roots and traditional practices of Indian coffee.
- Raise awareness and foster appreciation for Subko’s heritage.
- Differentiate Subko from mainstream coffee brands through its unique cultural identity.

CREATIVE CONCEPT - 2

“Sustainability on the go”

OVERVIEW:

“Sustainability on the go” will highlight Subko’s commitment to eco-friendly and ethical practices. The campaign will focus on Subko’s sustainable sourcing, fair trade practices, and eco-conscious packaging; and how easily accessible it is. By partnering with environmental influencers and creating immersive content, the campaign will engage Gen-Z and Millennials who prioritize sustainability in their purchasing decisions.

AIM:

- Position Subko as a leader in sustainable coffee in the UK market.
- Appeal to the growing demand for ethical and environmentally responsible brands.
- Build brand loyalty among eco-conscious consumers.
- Highlight the positive impact of choosing Subko.

CREATIVE CONCEPT - 3

“A Taste of India”

OVERVIEW:

“A Taste of India” invites consumers to embark on a sensory journey through India’s diverse coffee regions. This campaign will feature limited-edition coffee blends inspired by different Indian regions, each with unique flavours and stories. Pop-up events, tasting sessions, and digital content will bring these experiences to life, allowing consumers to explore Indian coffee culture.

AIM:

- Differentiate Subko in the UK market with unique, region-specific coffee experiences.
- Cater to adventurous, experience-driven consumers.
- Create buzz and excitement around Subko’s offerings.
- Encourage trial and repeat purchases by showcasing the brand’s diverse and exotic range.

FINAL
DIRECTION

BEYOND THE BREW

OVERVIEW:

“Beyond the Brew” is a captivating campaign designed to introduce global consumers to the depth and richness of Indian coffee. This campaign will spotlight how Indian coffee transcends the ordinary, offering not just a beverage but an immersive experience steeped in rich culture, unique flavours, and sustainable practices. Through a mix of storytelling, digital engagement, and experiential marketing, it will position Subko as the gateway to discovering the true essence of Indian coffee, highlighting the brand’s commitment to quality, authenticity, and environmental responsibility.

AIM:

- Educate consumers on Indian coffee’s cultural heritage and unique flavours.
- Differentiate Subko through sustainability and ethical sourcing.
- Engage globally with immersive storytelling and experiences.
- Drive trial and loyalty through quality and distinctiveness.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE

“To elevate Subko’s brand perception globally by showcasing the rich cultural heritage, unique flavours, and sustainable practices of Indian coffee, transforming consumer perceptions and positioning Subko as more than just a coffee brand—it’s a cultural experience.”

RATIONALE

- Coffee brands focus on convenience and mass appeal.
- Opportunity to highlight Indian coffee’s depth and uniqueness.
- 65% of consumers value sustainability and authenticity.
- “Beyond the Brew” connects to coffee origins and responsible practices.

HUMAN TRUTH

Consumers crave more than just products—they seek meaningful experiences and authentic connections that align with their values. Coffee offers a journey, not just a drink, connecting them to different cultures and enriching their lives.

CREATIVE STRATEGY

Launching Subko's desi brew in the uk

Brand Extension Strategy

Objective:

To introduce “Subko's Desi Brew” as a brand extension specifically tailored for the UK market, addressing the disconnect of the primary brand with local audiences.

Rationale:

Primary Brand Fit: The existing brand has a strong Indian identity, which may not resonate with UK audiences.

Cultural Alignment: Emphasize “Subko's Desi Brew” as an authentic Indian coffee experience, incorporating design, food, and ambiance that appeals to UK sensibilities.

CREATIVE STRATEGY

Launch Plan

Approach:

Cost-Efficient Launch:

Open small corner cafes in UK universities to manage costs effectively.

Benefits:

1. Cost Savings: Avoid high expenses of large venues.
2. Widespread Presence: Multiple locations across various universities.
3. Target Audience: Universities offer access to a diverse, multicultural demographic ideal for brand growth.

CREATIVE STRATEGY

Marketing Strategy:

Social Media & Partnerships:

- Leverage partnerships with local city-based social media pages to boost visibility.
- Utilize targeted social media campaigns to build brand awareness.

On-Ground Activation:

- Place fliers and banners across university campuses to increase physical presence.
- Host interactive brand awareness events to engage potential customers.

CREATIVE STRATEGY

Brand Loyalty Initiatives

Merchandise Launch:

- Introduce branded merchandise to enhance brand recognition and attract consumers.

Loyalty Programs:

- Implement loyalty programs to retain customers and encourage repeat visits.
